From the copy of Compensation Statement submitted by the Collector, it is seen that he has sanctioned a levy deduction of Rs 0-4-0 as a temporary measure, for an extent of 39 cents in S. No 129 B which is an unfranchised artisan ham in Ekkamuruvani village. In the award it is stated that the compensation for the Kudiravaram interest was divided equally between the two pattadars ~~and~~ ^{not} it is mentioned therein that it has been deposited in Court. The Board presumes that it has been paid to them in Cash. ^{If so the} Coll. is requested to sanction the levy.

deduction permanently.

If, however, the amount has been deposited in Court, the compensation statement has to be revised as 'judi' on the land ought not to be reduced in case of temporary sanction. The coll. should in that case ~~be~~ ~~reduced~~ to sanction the entire amount of Re 0-5-9 as ^{as being deduction} temporarily without interfering with the 'judi'.

Ser. No 2, p 15 CF

The Collector has sanctioned the berry deduction and has submitted a copy of the Compensation Statement as required in his above G. O. to the Board for checking any errors.

The sanction is defective as shown below:

From portion B at page 7 of the award proceedings, it may be seen that the compensation for the Kudiwaram interest was divided equally between the two pattadars and it has not been mentioned specifically that it was deposited in Court. The

Collector has sanctioned the being deduction of Rs 4-as a temporary measure, reducing ^{also} the proportionate Jodi of 0-1-9 on the extent acquired. A reduction of Jodi should not be done in the case of temporary sanctions, as it involves alterations of a temporary nature to be carried out in B register, which is a permanent register. The discrepancy stated above, may be pointed out to the Collector
